La Petite Academy of Bradenton Opens Infant Room

BRADENTON, Fla., February 5, 2009 – La Petite Academy – a leader in early education and child care is excited to announce that it is now offering an infant program at its school, located at 6919 53rd Avenue East. This is in response to the growing demand for infant care in the local community.

La Petite Academy is confident that parents will appreciate the fully remodeled classroom, new equipment and state-of-the-art environment. The lead teacher has been with the company for more than three years, meets all state requirements and is committed to providing the children with a warm, safe environment.

“We are so proud of the early education program that we offer to our families and are looking forward to watching our new little ones grow with us,” said Nikki Williams. “A quality learning experience is so important to a child’s future educational success – even when starting at infancy – so we are glad to bring this type of program to our community.”

La Petite Academy is currently enrolling infants, however, space is limited. For more information, please call 941-753-2336 or visit www.lapetite.com.
